

The Library provides the use of quiet study rooms as an additional service.

Permissible Use

Adult visitors with a current library card in good standing may checkout a study room.

Hours

Study rooms are available during regular Library hours and should be vacated 15 minutes prior to closing to allow staff members time to prepare the building.

Reservations

Study rooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Reservations are not required or accepted.

Guidelines

- A. Please be mindful of by keeping noise at a low level so everyone can enjoy a comfortable and productive environment.
- B. Small study rooms are designed for up to two people. The group study room comfortably accommodates up to five people.
- C. Visitors are encouraged to keep personal belongings with them, as the Library cannot assume responsibility for items left unattended.
- D. Users are asked to treat furnishings and equipment with care and are responsible for any damage.
- E. Study rooms are intended for quiet study, tutoring, or small meetings.