

You must present your library card to check out materials. For more information, see Application for Borrower's Card VI.8 A.

The standard loan period is 28 days, with the following exceptions:

- New fiction books are loaned for 14 days,
- Audio-Visual material is loaned for 14 days, and
- Library of Things items may be limited to 14 days

Borrowing Limits

- 4 DVDs for 14 days,
- 4 music CDs for 14 days,
- 2 language sets for 14 days, or
- 4 books on CD for 14 days
- 25 total items

Renewals

Your library card is required to renew materials.

Books and audio-visual materials may be renewed. However, if someone else is waiting for an item and has placed a hold on it, that item will not be renewed.

You can renew items online by using "My Account" from the home page or the "View Your Record" function in the library catalog.

Online renewal may only be done prior to the item becoming overdue. Once listed as overdue the item can only be renewed at the library.
